

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB OF THE SLV

About the Area

ALAMOSA, CO

Population: 9,500

Alamosa is the largest town in the San Luis Valley and is the location of Adams State University. It is the shopping "hub" for most folks in the SLV (two large grocery stores, a Walmart, and several restaurants and downtown shops). The growing trail system makes biking, running, and walking near natural areas easy and enjoyable (including the Rio Grande River). It is relatively easy to walk or bike to most locations around town.

What Members are Saying

The Boys & Girls Club is best for someone who does well with flexibility, creativity, managing overwhelming and overstimulating atmospheres, and someone able to have fun. Best for someone who needs more freedom than school staff.

This site gives self starters the ability to develop projects based on your interests and offer the potential for growth into leadership roles over time. Best for someone who is carefree, bilingual, caring, funny, easy going, creative, stern at times and that loves academic free zones, and open minded.

About the Site

BGC of the SLV

SITE: Boys and Girls Club of the San Luis Valley has multiple sites including Alamosa, Antonito, Center, and Sierra Grande. Members generally begin their day in Alamosa and may either stay and support the Alamosa club or commute to extension sites. The site trains members in restorative process behavior training and positive youth development. Drivers license preferred.

MEMBERS: There will be at most 9 AmeriCorps members placed in Alamosa.

You Might Enjoy If...

you want to interact with kids in a creative and less academic setting

you are a self-starter, creative and interested in unique programming

you want every day to be different

BIG TOWN | ALL AGES | OUT OF SCHOOL TIME | FREEDOM